HOROSCOPES

Week of May 27 2026

(21 March- 20 April) It may feel like people only hear half of what you have to say. This may be due to selective hearing on their part or in much rarer cases, selective talking on yours.

(21 April-21 May) A challenging time may test your principles in ways you didn't expect but not to fear, I'm sure you won't compromise your morals too much. stares judgementally

(22 May- 21 June) You may be trying to get in touch with yourself lately, trying to connect with some part of you deep down. Just don't do it in public or you may be charged with indecent exposure.

(22 June- 23 July) Life follows a simple flow. We're born, we live, and then we die. No one is above this fundamental tenet of the universe, except for necromancers.

(24 July- 23 Aug) A local issue may come to a head when the two sides can't find common ground. Given that the issue is the sink hole in the middle of the neighbourhood that makes sense.

(24 Aug- 23 Sept) Challenging yourself at work can often lead to a more positive image of self and a sense of accomplishment, but it also means you'll be held to a higher standard than Lazy Paul from accounting.

(24 Sept- 23 Oct) Thinking on the experiences of others can reshape a world view. To avoid this, find a social media echo chamber. That way you'll never have to question anything ever again.

(24 Oct- 22 Nov) An attempt to change another person may go horribly wrong for everyone around you. That's why you can't just go around injecting people with werewolf blood.

(23 Nov- 21 Dec) A moment of calm with a loved one may remind you of the joy and serenity of life. However the chances this calm will be shattered by an escaped farm emu crashing through your porch window is never 0%.

(22 Dec- 20 Jan) Trying to take better care of yourself this year may lead to a happier life. Or you could have a twinkie. Either way works.

(21 Jan- 19 Feb) A lack of inventiveness may have you stuck trying to solve a simple problem. Try doing something really out of the blue and unexpected. It probably won't work but at least you won't be bored.

(20 Feb- 20 March) An unexpected renovation may leave you with an unexpected skylight in the living room.
