HOROSCOPES

Week of July 8 2026

(21 March- 20 April) Home is where we can be ourselves without judgement... Unless it's self judgement. In which case no amount of housing is going to help.

(24 Sept- 23 Oct) A new opportunity may open for you in the field of waste water management. But probably not.

(21 April-21 May) Sometimes we shout louder, hoping to be heard. But when we all shout at once, no one hears anything. That's why you should communicate using semaphore instead.

(24 Oct- 22 Nov) A newly found perspective on life may have changed your entire outlook on the world around you but that doesn't mean I want to hear about it 24/7.

(22 May- 21 June) The principles you live your life by may be called into question when you experience something that conflicts with your previous views. The best course of action is clearly active denial of reality.

(23 Nov- 21 Dec) A great change may be just over the horizon. Or under the horizon? That one makes more sense doesn't it?

(22 June- 23 July) A little self reflection can go a long way. Just don't say Bloody Mary 3 times or she may come out of the mirror to kill you. It's true! It happened to a friend of my grandfather's cousin's nephew's roommate.

(22 Dec- 20 Jan) A lack of success in forming relationships may simply stem from your constant need to feel secure and in control of your life. Better become a hermit.

(24 July- 23 Aug) In life we can't always see the road ahead clearly. Particularly in white-out conditions. My point is drive safe in any random July snow storms.

(21 Jan- 19 Feb) A newly found energy may have you feeling younger and more vital lately. The best course of action would be to find out who's spiking your coffee with amphetamines.

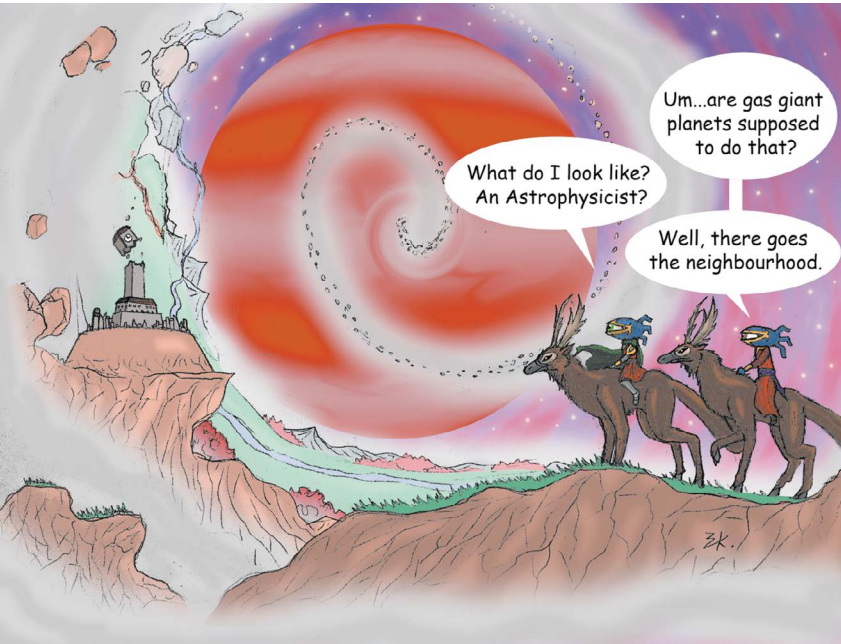

(24 Aug- 23 Sept) We all need someone to lean on once in a while. Particularly when very drunk.

(20 Feb- 20 March) Your grand vision has the potential to become reality if you are willing to see it through. A three story Denny's! Or something else probably. I don't know what you're up to.
