DIVERSIONS

"I refuse to accept the view that mankind is so tragically bound to the starless midnight of racism and war that the bright daybreak of peace and brotherhood can never become a reality... I believe that unarmed truth and unconditional love will have the final word.

- Martin Luther King Jr.
American civil rights activist and Baptist minister

HOROSCOPES

Week of 14 October 2026

(21 March- 20 April) You may form a stronger relationship with a family member who annoys you despite your best efforts.

(21 April-21 May) The likelihood of getting gored by a bison is low, but never zero.

(22 May- 21 June) An attempt to renovate a room in your house may lead to the installation of an unintended skylight. That's a load bearing wall.

(22 June- 23 July) Have a relaxing night at home if the world has felt overwhelming lately. Lie back with a good movie and a bowl of microwaved brussel sprouts or possibly a snack food that doesn't suck.

(24 July- 23 Aug) A miscommunication may be responsible for an important task not getting done at work. Personally I blame Jenkins.

(24 Aug- 23 Sept) What you hold closest to your heart is what helps keep you alive. Especially if it's a defibrillator.

(24 Sept- 23 Oct) You're alright. Stop stressing. Have a mars bar or something.

(24 Oct- 22 Nov) Life can beat us down in our best moments and lift us up at our worst and throw us into traffic when we're at our neutral.

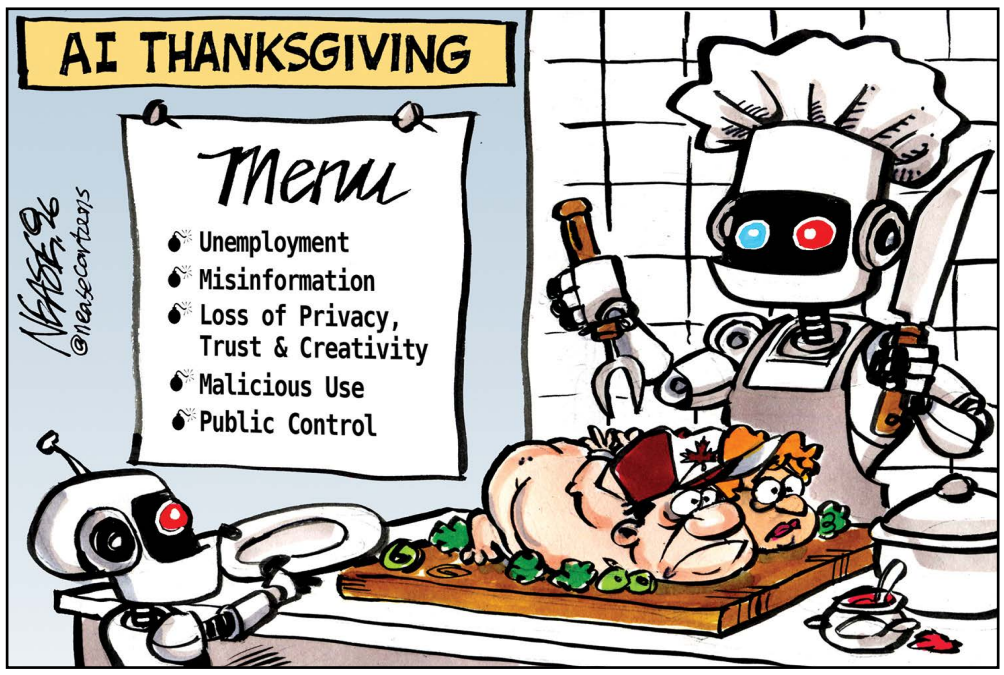

(23 Nov- 21 Dec) A local event may bring up old grievances between members of your community. This is why you shouldn't invite the Hatfield and Mccoys.

(22 Dec- 20 Jan) You may find yourself feeling tired and burnt out at work lately but don't worry. Neil Young says it's better to burn out than to fade away.

(21 Jan- 19 Feb) A new perspective on world events may have you trying to change other people's thinking as well. Don't forget to be as confrontational and condescending as possible. That's how you change minds!

(20 Feb- 20 March) A new addition to your life may have you feeling a bit lost lately. That new addition is amnesia. Go to the Doctor.
